BRIGHTON HYUNDAI SPONSORS MAJOR FESTIVALS AGAIN

Brighton Hyundai is once again the Principal Sponsor of two of Council's biggest community events - the 2009 Carols by the Bay event and the 2010 Mordialloc by the Bay Fine Food,
Wine and Music Festival.

Kingston Council's Chief Executive Officer, Mr John Nevins, welcomed Brighton Hyundai's ongoing commitment to support these community events.

"Congratulations to Mr Kevin Swanson and the entire team at Brighton Hyundai for their ongoing commitment to the local community by supporting these fantastic community events," Mr Nevins said.

Brighton Hyundai's Dealer Principal Kevin Swanson said he was very happy to once again support Kingston's major events.

"Our sponsorship is part of our ongoing support of the community and is an excellent opportunity for Brighton Hyundai to be part of the local region," Mr Swanson said.

"We have enjoyed being involved in the Carols and Mordialloc by the Bay Fine Food, Wine and Music events for the past two years and are delighted to be on board again in 2009 for the Carols and in 2010 for the Mordialloc Festival."

Carols by the Bay

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20

Pre-concert entertainment from 6.30pm

Main concert from 8.15pm

Fireworks at 10.15pm

Peter Scullin Reserve, Beach Rd and Pier Rd, Mordialloc
(Melway reference 92 E1)

Pack your picnic basket and a rug and take a seat under the stars for the 2009 Carols by the Bay spectacular to be held on Sunday, December 20.

The festivities will kick off at 6.30pm with the pre-concert entertainment featuring The Great Gizmo Show, a highly interactive performance for children and adults alike including magic, uni-cycling and fire juggling.

Headlining the main carols concert, which will commence at 8.15pm, is one of Australia's favourite singer/songwriters, Mark Seymour. Other performers will include Annalisa Kerrigan, Jane Clifton, Nichaud Fitzgibbon, Richard Thomas, Paul Williamson, Troy McMillin and the Airforce Band, Russell Robertson, Rebecca Barnard and Gorgi Coghlan. Kingston Council is also delighted to welcome back Darryl Cotton as MC for the event.

Programs that include the words to the carols that will be performed on the night will be available for $3 each, or you can purchase a program and candle for $4. The Aspendale Rotary Club will hold a sausage sizzle.

Carols by the Bay is an alcohol-free and dog-free event.
Reserved seating is available in front of the stage for $11 a seat (limited seating available). To book, phone Hazel Pierce on 9580 8841. Alternatively, bring your picnic rug and find a free spot on the lawn area.

For more information, visit www.kingston.vic.gov.au or phone Council on 1300 653 356.

The 2009 Carols by the Bay event will feature a huge line-up of some of the best singers, musicians, actors and personalities, including:

Mark Seymour - regarded as one of Australia's best singer/songwriters.

Darryl Cotton - this well-known Australian singer, presenter and actor will once again host the event.

Annalisa Kerrigan - concert and operatic performer.

Jane Clifton - jazz singer, actor and author.

Nichaud Fitzgibbon - jazz performer.

Richard Thomas - Melbourne tenor.

Paul Williamson - Paul Williamson
Hammond Combo.

Troy McMillin - Airforce Band vocalist.

Gorgi Coghlan - formerly from Channel 9's Today Show.

Russell Robertson - former AFL footballer and musician.

Rebecca Barnard - singer/songwriter and formerly from Rebecca's Empire.

The Great Gizmo Show - pre-concert entertainment for children and adults featuring magic, juggling, uni-cycling, object balancing, fire juggling and more.

A special visit from Santa!

Mark Seymour
will headline
this year's Carols by the Bay event.
